

NORTHERN ROUTE BOUND TO SUCCEED

Mr. J. S. Mitchell, one of the proprietors of the Hollenbeck hotel in Los Angeles, went through Flagstaff Wednesday morning on his way home from Santa Fe, where he had been attending the Ocean to Ocean convention. Mr. Mitchell is very much interested in seeing that the great scenic route of the northern part of Arizona is put before eastern tourists, believing that the great drawing power for tourists throughout the east is located in the north. He is after results rather than the exploiting of any real estate scheme or other personal propositions that will be but a detriment to the southwest generally.

Like all disinterested parties he says: "You can make it a southern route if they desire, but if the northern counties will build a decent road from Springerville west, no one can compel tourists to go south leaving all the great points of interest."

The four northern counties can control nine-tenths of the tourist travel in spite of anything the southern specialists can do; all that is needed is a good road—the tourist will do the rest. Non-informed tourist may go south, but only because he is not informed of the attractions of the northern route.

DEMONSTRATION TRAIN HERE NOVEMBER 25

Following out its paternal policy of helping all resources tributary to its lines, the Santa Fe railroad through General Manager Drake has organized in conjunction with the University of Arizona's Experiment Station an agricultural demonstration train, the first in the history of Arizona.

This train will travel through every part of the Santa Fe system in Arizona and the results will be beyond conjecture, providing the farmers along the lines realize the importance of the project and turn out in full force.

On questions affecting the farmer, stockraiser and dairyman the best talent available in the southwest has been secured. Besides this, the train will carry machinery of the newest type, live stock and exhibits of agricultural and horticultural productions raised this year in all parts of Arizona.

Prof. A. M. McOmie will be the man in charge. He is superintendent of the Farmers' Institute Department of the Experiment Station. W. A. Drake, general manager of the lines centering in Prescott, will make the trip and talk to the farmers on the subject of "Co-operation." Among other subjects to be discussed at every stop scheduled for this important journey will be "Dairying," by Prof. R. W. Clothier; "Alfalfa Pasturing," by Prof. G. F. Freeman; "Good Roads," by Prof. Smith; "Johnson Grass Legislation," by Prof. R. H. Forbes; "Johnson Grass Control," Prof. A. M. McOmie, and "Insect Pests," by Dr. A. W. Morrill, state entomologist. Demonstrations will be given by these men, illustrating the points to be made in their talks.

The train will be at Flagstaff Monday, Nov. 25th. Mayor Treat has made special preparations for entertaining the visitors. The lectures will be held at the court house, afternoon and evening.

A Bold House Breaker

A bold burglar entered Dave Lovell's residence last Thursday morning about 4 o'clock and commenced to make a collection among the roomers there. He succeeded in getting Chas. White's watch and had Newt Berry's nether garments in his hands when Bob Anderson woke up and inquired into his presence there. The thief made a swift run, holding onto Berry's pants which he got away with. Berry run outside and took a shot at him, but evidently missed, as the fellow kept going west at a rapid gait. Aside from the watch he secured two or three dollars in Berry's pockets.

GREETINGS TO ARIZONA'S NEW CITIZEN'S, THE WOMEN

From Mrs. Frances W. Munds, Chairman of the Arizona Equal Suffrage Central Committee, Prescott, Arizona:

Our campaign has been a short but strenuous one. Only a few of us have been free to engage actively in the work, and those few have worked well.

We commenced with our initiative petition last May, and filed it the fifth of July with 700 names to spare. Then followed four months of campaign, the last few weeks being very trying ones, but each day we were cheered and strengthened by words of encouragement from both men and women assuring us of their interest and support, sometimes enclosing money for the cost of the work.

It was estimated at the beginning of the campaign that it could not be conducted for less than five thousand dollars, but the cost has been less than two thousand. Nine hundred of this was contributed by the National Woman Suffrage Association, and the balance by suffragists in the different states, Arizona contributing about half of the amount, so that now there remains only about two hundred dollars deficit. Our campaign has cost Arizona less than five hundred dollars, and I should like to have the women who have been enfranchised at such a small cost show their gratitude by helping to repay the National Suffrage Association. I am sure there are eleven hundred women in this state, who are glad one dollar's worth and if they will each help the deficit in the state treasury will be met and the National will be paid the sum advanced for our emancipation. You may send direct to The National Woman Suffrage Association, 505 Fifth Avenue, New York, or you may send to me, and I will forward same. In either case the name of the contributor will be published in the Woman's Journal. This fund will be set aside as Arizona's donation to the next suffrage campaign state which will be our northern sister, Nevada. So let us all be generous and see what we can do for Nevada and at the same time pay our own debt to the National.

I have been asked frequently what we are going to do with the ballot now that we have it. That depends upon ourselves entirely and how well we fit ourselves for its proper use. I hope you will band yourselves together, regardless of political, religious or personal differences and make a study of the laws that govern women and children, so that our laws may be better, even than those of Colorado, which at present are the best in the world. I shall give the present laws of Arizona my most careful attention and see what should be undertaken first. I shall be glad to correspond with anyone who is interested along these lines. There are many things to be done, but let us do each thing that we undertake well and in order.

According to present returns, Oregon, Kansas and Michigan all carried for suffrage at the late election, but by small majorities, while Arizona has given a majority of at least two to one. So let us thank the generous, progressive men of Arizona, who are the right sort of fathers, husbands, brothers and sons. And don't be too hard on those who voted "No" on the suffrage amendment. They did not intend to be mean. They were only foolish. Let us show them what good citizens we can be, and that we intend to stand side by side with all who are working for Arizona's good.

Ladies, my service to you, as far as obtaining the ballot is concerned, is ended. I have enjoyed the work, and I thank you each and all for your hearty support and co-operation.

I hope that the women of Arizona will do as they have done in every state where they have been made citizens, namely, fulfill the duties of citizenship so well that all the world will point to us and say "Give the women their freedom, and make of this whole United States a real American Commonwealth."

Young Trout for Beaver Creek

Rangers Jas. Bailey and L. Clayton received a shipment of 15,000 trout from the government hatchery in Colorado Thursday, which they took to Beaver Creek to stock up that stream. The trout arrived on No. 1 and the Rangers started south with them immediately.

MISS HALL TO WRITE ARIZONA HISTORY

Has Made Extensive Research so Work Will Be Complete to the Remotest Detail

Miss Charlotte M. Hall, former historian for the territory, has about completed her many researches for her history of Arizona from the year 1539, in May, when Father Niza crossed into Arizona from Mexico, until February, 1912, when the territory became a state, and will immediately begin the great work, which she alone of many people in Arizona is capable of doing.

Miss Hall has been working for years obtaining information from all possible sources. It is her belief that the state records are too remote for the average citizen to find access to.

She has ridden thousands of miles, on trains, in wagons and on horseback to find material for her work of love, and is so well informed upon the history of Arizona that there is no doubt that her work will be a classic of the highest type. Even the cold truth in the history is romantic enough to be interesting, without the power of word painting which Miss Hall is capable of, and with it, it will be one of the greatest histories ever written.

ROADS TO RECEIVE FOREST SERVICE MONEY

The Forest officials have notified Forest Supervisor Drake that from the 10 per cent gross receipts of the forests to be utilized in the construction of good roads, $4,800 have been appropriated for the road between Flagstaff and Bellemont, and about $8,000 for the road from Bellemont to Williams. With this in addition to the amount annually derived from the Forest Service should be sufficient to make a good road. The stone crusher and steam roller would come in handy in starting something permanent in the way of roads.

Bazaar and Food Sale

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a bazaar and food sale at the residence formerly occupied by G. N. Baty on Friday, Nov. 22, commencing at 2 p. m. Nice assortment of useful articles, dolls and Christmas presents will be on sale. Also home-made mince meat, fruit cake, jellies and preserves; Jack Horner pies—fun for the children; nice assortment of candies.

Marshall Lake Hunters

A hunting party consisting of Rus Warner, the U. M. C. man, Gordon Clark, the Phoenix hardware man, John Metz, the German sheep baron, Mr. Rich of the Western Metals Co., and Mr. Taft, the Phoenix sign man, were taken to Wm. Friedlein's ranch at Marshall lake last week, where Rus Warner introduced the latest things in pump-guns and U. M. C. shells to the ducks. They secured about a hundred duck during the trip.

REV. JOSEPH LYONS MEADE IS MARRIED

The Nashville (Tenn.) Democrat says in part, relative to the wedding of Joseph Lyons Meade to Miss Helen Bell at Nashville, Tenn., on Nov. 2:

"Attended by all the solemnity of a church ceremony and witnessed by a brilliant gathering of Tennessee's foremost families, was the marriage of Miss Helen Bell and Rev. Joseph Lyons Meade solemnized Nov. 2nd, at 4 o'clock at Christ church, Rev. H. J. Mickell, rector of the church, officiated.

"Miss Bell since very early childhood has taken a very brilliant place in the social life of the city. Both by right of family prominence and her own attractions has held a high position in the esteem and regards of the leading people of this city and state. She is a member of the Woods family long renowned for beauty and wit of its women, and during her young ladyhood has reigned supreme.

"Mr. Meade is high in the ecclesiastical world and a man of much personal charm and ability. The one and only regrettable thing in connection with this marriage is the necessity of losing Miss Bell. Mr. Meade has chosen as his place of residence Flagstaff, Arizona, 'way up in the mountains of the great Canyon.'

Rev. Meade and bride will be given a royal welcome home by the members of his congregation and the people of Flagstaff generally.

WILL FIGHT 3 CENT PASSENGER LAW FARE

To prevent, if possible, the putting into effect of the provisions of the three cent fare law recently adopted, a suit for an injunction against the Arizona Corporation Commission was filed before Federal Judge Sloan late yesterday afternoon by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad company and a hearing of the petition will be had by the judges of the appellate court of the ninth judicial district in San Francisco.

W. P. Geary, A. W. Cole and F. A. Jones, the members of the corporation commission, are made defendants in the suit, while the county attorneys of Apache, Coconino, Navajo, Mohave and Maricopa are made co-defendants as are several private citizens of the state.

A similar suit has been filed by the Grand Canyon road, which is a branch of the Santa Fe in this state.

The suit was filed Monday afternoon and certified copies of the complaint secured and immediately rushed to San Francisco for hearing.

Pants for More Clothes

Few can realize what a cool, cold world this is until you attempt to pick up a suit of clothes quick—then someone wants to make it hot for you. Jose Rodriguez, a stranger here, picked up a suit of clothes, hanger and all, in front of Babbitt's clothing department Tuesday morning, and started down the alley, undoubtedly looking for a secluded place to try them on. But owing to the fact that he had left no address, Mr. Murphy went right quickly after him. County Ranger Ed. Johnson, who is built something on the order of a road runner, let out a few links in his running gear, and for a couple of blocks Jose made scenery shift in chunks, but Johnson soon had him by a loose gallus bringing him back for more definite understanding of his intentions. Jose had dropped the garments near Dr. Portz' residence, which was conclusive evidence that he had no intention of getting away with them. He was absorbed in the county jail awaiting a social session with Judge Harrington.

Basket Ball Game

The Snowflake Academy boys will play the Normal School basket ball team tomorrow on the Normal grounds at 3 p. m. There is every reason to believe that it will be some game, since the Snowflake basketeers recently brought home the laurels from St. Johns.

Arrested in Flagstaff

Sheriff Jesus Romero left Tuesday night for Flagstaff, Arizona, where he will take over Leandro Archuleta, arrested by Sheriff T. E. Pulliam, of Coconino county, on advice of the sheriff's office here. Archuleta was indicted by the grand jury last spring on a charge of embezzling funds from the Singer company.—Albuquerque Herald.

WE MAY GET FREE EXPRESS DELIVERY

Hon. Paul Geary, chairman of the State Corporation Commission, was in Flagstaff Monday to hear the case brought against the Wells Fargo Express company, requesting a free delivery for Flagstaff. The hearing was an informal one in which a number of prominent citizens appeared to show the reasonableness of their request. The express company was also represented to give their side of the story.

Mr. Geary gave out nothing for publication, as the evidence submitted will have to be gone over by the members of the committee.

The matter of putting up street signs and numbering the houses was taken up with Mayor Treat, who expressed himself in favor of immediate action.

All at Sea

"My friends," fervently exclaimed one of the temperance spellbinders in the recent campaign for local option in an up-state county, "it all the saloons were at the bottom of the sea, what would be the inevitable result?"

And from the rear came the answer, "Lots of people would get drowned."

ARIZONA BOARD OF HEALTH BULLETIN

The State Board of Health's quarterly bulletin contains many interesting facts in its tabulated statement and especially urges more rigid vaccination laws, tells of typhoid as a sanitary game and infantile paralysis.

Total birth, 1,667; total deaths, 1,773.

Mappers on Way Home

Messrs. Harry Locke and Hamilton, the Arizona mappers, returned last Sunday morning early from their trip into New Mexico, and left Tuesday for the west, on their way to Kingman and Yuma. They found nothing to change their minds as to the relative value of the northern route through Arizona for tourists. Like all others they are convinced that all the scenic advantages lie in the north and our greatest advertising would result from it in the east. While they have little to say of the alfalfa route through the desert, they realize what should be done for the general good of Arizona.
